NO. 65.

Hundred Shots in 1133-4 Sec N. Y. Sun.

"Keep pour powder dry," said Ma-General Hancock yesterds y after-on on Governor's, Island, while a noon on Governor's, Island, while a man was pouring a pail of water into the pocket of a duplex field magazine gun which was about to be experimented upon. The water was simply to keep the gun barrels cool while firing rapidly. It was the first time that the General had seen the gun. Surrounding the General stood Lieutenant-Commander Gorringe, General Johnson of Alabama, Colonal John Bodine and Judge Gildersleeve of the American rifle team, the Rev. O. B. Frothingham and William Beecher, ex-Senator W. W. Eaten of Connecticut, and nearly one hundred ether gentlemen, who had been invited to see the gun work. ee the gun work.

The gun work.

The gun was composed of two barrels enclosed in a water pocket. By simple and strong mechanicism at the breech, assisted by a feeder, the piece first fired 200 ordinary United States cartridges of 45 calibre in 25 seconds. One hundred were then tried for speed and the hundred builets were sect into a target in 11% seconds. Then 500 shots were fired in 1 minute and 10 seconds.

"It would be just the thing to mow down a storming party," said General Hancock, "if they should get into such a place as this." The place was a large open space between the outer wall of the fort and the sea wall.

The gun weighs 141 pounds; with carriage, 571. The ene tried yesterday had been discharged upward of 55,000 times without the least tinkering. It was the belief of all present ing. It was the belief of all present that it would prove a very effective weapon in the field.

PRIDAY......DECEMBER 16, 188

The proposed plan of Secretary Folger and President Arthur to stop coinng silver would be a great injustice to Colorado, Utah, Nevada and our other silver-producing States and Ter-ritories. To decrease the demand for bullion by two million dollars a month, would kneck the market considerably lower, and anyone can tell what that means for Nevada. Instead of ceasing to cois silver it would be much wiser to increase its use by re-tiring notes under ten dollars, and also by putting more silver in the dollar. There is use for more money all the time, and silver will go well enough if either of these things are done. The Government would not be the loser by the operation, and there is no sound argument against it. Iron, steel, paper and wool are protected by heavy duties; why may not silver claim some recognition? The countries that produce iron can be used for farming and fruit raising if the iron industry becomes unprofitable. Nevada cannot be used for anything of the kind. Without her mine she becomes an uninhabited desert.

RAILROAD TEMPARANCE MOVE-

There are a great many places where a few drinks of whisky may not interfere with a man's work, and most men will say that one drink cannot hurt a man for any business. While it is not likely that a small amount of liquor will cloud a man's mind, or weaken his hand, or make his legs unsteady, yet it might take the keen edge off the judgment of an engineer or conductor, so that when called upon to decide instantly what to do in a great ried again anywhere outside of New emergency he would hesitate or take the wrong course. Daily and hourly railroad men are called upon to meet vital questions, and the trembling of a finger may bring disaster, the loss of a second may cause a wreck or an unsteady step on the narrow-running ried in New York to-morrow if I board of the swinging cars may send a man under the wheels. Feeling thus we look with great interest upon any movement to encourage total abstinence among this valuable class of public servants. There has been great improvement in this respect in the last few years, but there is still cause for we have money to throw away on sealskin coass and hot drinks there are people so helpless that they cannot also, I'm going to get even with both earn the necessaries of life. Let us not forget the widow and the orphan, the helpless and feeble in this happy holiday time. The merest trifle will seem like a blessing to the destitute, and it will be an example to our children which may soften and ennoble their characters more than a sermon We would be glad, when we are gone and they are old, to have them look back to childhood's days and see some act of charity of ours. It may be too, that such acts are bread cast upon the waters. The smallest accident might render the happiest as poor as the poorest. The loss of our eyes would darken all the world to us. A few fires would take our incomes or a shock might leave us helpless. Let us, therefore, profit by the Christmas lesson of eighteen centuries ago and give of that we will not miss to those who need it worse than we.

THE PROCESS OF GROWTH.

The Southern trade is not of the value to Reno that it should be and that it would be if it was worked for. Merchants here have considerable advantage over those in Carson and Virginia and they could sell goods all tells me he is a dead beat."
over Douglas, Esmeralda and Lyon Guiteau became very an counties if they canvassed or advertised for it. There are people coming and going from there all the time, and they could be captured by the right kind of men, and if once they changed to Range a stadillar which the same and contains a stadillar which the same and contains a stadillar which the same and contains a stadillar which the same as a stadillar which the same to Reno as a tradibg point they could be kept by fair and honorable treatment. This is what must be done if Reno is ever to amount to anything. Think it over.

The Gazarra feels again called upon his friends. I have wondered a good to call attention to the condition of many times how I ended it. I thought the Reno fire department. With no fire company what would be the result not undertake it again for a million of a confiagration? Would it not be well for the trustees of the department President by a pressure I could not well for the trustees of the department to call a citizens' meeting and take steps to reorganize the company. While the sky is clear prepare for a storm. There is nothing to be gained by setting the matter off, but much valuable property might be wiped out of existence in an hour by delaying it. What do the trustees and citizens say about the matter?

I wonder if Corkhill ist I guess they got more than they wanted yesterday. It is about time for Cork-hill to get sick and stay sick."

George D. Barnard, Deputy Clerk of the Supreme Court of Kings' county, New York, took the stand to prove the divorce of Annie J. Guiteau from the prisoner. The witness pre sented the record of the Court and the order of the Judge for his (witdense's) attendance bere.

Scoville objected to the admission of papers, upon the ground that they were not certified to by the clerk of the Court, as required by Act of Con-

The Court overruled the objection and admitted the papers as originals in the case. The papers set forth the granting of an absolute divorce upon the grounds of adultry.

No answer having been made by defendant (Guiteau) referring to the woman named with whom he had committed adultry, said: "This woman was a high-toned woman in New York. It was purely a matter of business between us. I committed adultry with her to get rid of a woman I did not love. I thought it much more moral courage than to live with her and have children year after year. I have been a strictly virtuous man for six years past and have always been a high-toned Christian man."

Scoville-I desire to note an excep tion to the admission of the evidence Guiteau, with emphasis - Oh, what's the use quibbling over that. I admit my marriage and my divorce. I don't care for that. I can get mar-York State, and for that matter in New York too. Under the new law there, if a man lives a strictly virtuous life for six years after having been divorced the courts will let him marry again. Why, I could get marwanted to.

General Reynolds was called. Guiteau at once broke in petulantly, saying, "I hope you will cut off General Reynolds and not waste any more time on him. He told all he knew about the case and a good deal more."

S coville cross-examined the witness Guiteau frequently interrupted, contradicted and insulted the wetness, at The poor we have always with us. one time shouting, "I would have sin last June at a boot-black's stand last but for the National troops, and although you are lying and Corkhill of you, too."

Witness explained that when he visited Guiteau his trial had not been arranged. President Garfield was still living, and he (witness) had no thought of being subpoened as a wit-

"You lie!" shouted Guiteau, "You came into my cell as a spy in the employ of the District Attorney."

General Reynolds read from note he had taken on an interview with Griteau, quoting the prisoners words. He read, "If there is a stalwart in the land I am he. Grant, Conkling, Logan and Governor Cornell are big guns among the Stalwarts, and I rank with Guiteau-I never said I could rank with them, but as a matter of fact think I can.

A number of newspaper slips which witness had fread to the prisoner at this interview, to show him what were sent out (notes of Grant, Conkling, and others) in regard to his (prisoner) crime were then read by the District Attorney, when a letter of General Grant's was read, in which the writer, in speaking of Guiteau, said, "my son

Mrs. Anna J. Dunmyer, Guitean' divorced wife, was then called.

Several ladies arose to leave court-room. Guiteau moved uneasily upon his seat, and, looking angrily toward the audience, shouted: There won't be any smnt on this examina tion, ladies. Do not go out. They have no business to put this woman on the stand unless Corkhill wants to stir up filth. I say it is an outrage on decency for Corkhill to drag this lady in here and have her character ripped up as it will be. Corkhill should be ashamed of himself. He is worse than an old hog. I appeal to the Court to intercept this infamous action of Corkhill. Arthur ought to kick im out. I made Arthur President, and I have a right to demand that he shall put some reputable lawyer in the place of this infamous Corkhill.

Very much to the surprise of every one present but two or three quest were asked the witness, and she stated in reply to the last question - "I never saw any signs of insanity in the prisoner while I lived with him as his wife. This closed the examination by the prosecution.

Guitesu, with a sigh of relief, said the sake of her children. This is the most decent thing you have done in this trial: I expect, however, Judges capitization, as for instance 1,000,000 Porter and Davidge insisted on it, and shares, the application is not enterthey are both supposed to be decent

NEW YORK, December 16. A Hern'd Washington Special says The money to pay the expenses of Garfield's illness will be disposed of as follows: Drs. Bliss, Agnew and Hamilton are to receive $24,000 or $27,000 each. Four nurses are to receive $25,000 each. Dr. Lamb, of Surgeon-General's office, is to receive $5,000 for the autopsy which he made. Reyburn, who was Bliss' assistant, will also receive a reasonable sum for his constant attendance. It is not known what charge the railroad compapies will make for the use of special trains or for the construction of new tracks laid in Washington and at Long Branch.

Another Witness in the Guiteau Cas CHICAGO, December 12.

A Times', Pittsburg, Pa., special says: John F. Foster, a man 60 years of age, residing in Beaver, has been summoned to Washington as a witness against Guiteau. He will testify that he encountered the assas-Guiteau gave his name and said that ne was to be appointed consul at Paris. Foster suggested that there was many a slip in politics. Guiteau said: "If I dont get that appointment there will be more excitement here than there has been since 1865."

Chandler on the Gultean Case.

CHICAGO, December 15. A Times' Washington special says After negotiations extending over six weeks, Jeff Chandler, a well-known criminal lawyer of St. Louis, who has been associated with the defense in the Star Route cases, had been retained as associate counsel for Guiteau. He at once declined to act because a retaining fee of $5,000 could not be furnished. When the testimony is all in he will make an argument, and says that he will either obtain an acquittal, on the ground of insanity or divide that fact: People who notice certificates of the par value of, say $25, sellingifreely at the market price of a few cents, fancy there is something crooked and dishonest about the whole cheme and stand aloof from it.

A bill will probably be introduced when the Legislature meets providing for the uniform system of capitalizing all mining properties dealt in here. Secretary Wood of the Mining Exchange said: "I can't myself tell you the par of any of the stocks on our list, except California stocks, which generally speaking, have a uniform par value of $100. However, it would not be well to have the number of shares in any case too small. Take Mount Diable and | Northern Belle for instance. They have each only 50,000 shares each. While shares are so few traders are afraid to sell stock short as they could easily be cornered. This is a disadvantage. It is well to have stock sold short occasionally as it helps to make a market. A test package of Ozone, containing a sufficient quantity to preserve one thousand dozen eggs, or other articles in proportion, will be sent to any supplicant on receipt of $2. BELL TONGUE SYRUP, AN ACCIDENTAL DISCOVERY OF

An Inestimable Benefit' to UNCLE BEN JO'S CREAT SOUTH AMERICAN PANACEA.

CREAT SOUTH AMERICAN PANACEA.

UNCLE BEN JO was born in Boston in 1800. Being a botanist, he effected many wonderfu. cures with roots and herbs. In 1844 he went to South America to study botany, and while there accidentally made his great discovery. The natives of this country were quite familiar with it, and had always supposed it to be a poisonous herb, which they used for the soie purpose of keeping snakes away from their tents or houses. This they did by laying it in a circle about the same at a proper distance off. This herb, Uncle Jo, as well as the natives, considered a very obnoxious and poisonous one, and when green and fresh it threw off a very distasteful and repulsive odor. The herb grows about two feet high, and about eight inches of the top part of its stalk is leafless, and this part lops over and hangs downward perpendicularly, and from its carved neck to its end it increases in size, and on the end of the same is a large, burly-looking ball, which stalk and ball, in this hanging position, looks precisely like the tongue of a bell. Hence Uncle Jo samed it the Bell Tongue Plant. In Soath America this herb is only found in the extreme interior of the country, and the natives there call it "Zarr Neto." It is a wonderful cure of kidney and liver diseases, also, dyspepsia, neuralgia and rheumatism. We have a whole library full of testfruourish." Sold by

1882. THE RENO GAZETTE

For 1885 will be a better paper than it has ever been before. It now gets all the latest press dispatches, and is thus placed many hours shead of any other paper. It has always been the policy of the proprietor to make the Gazerra a first-class local paper, with full accounts of everything that occurs in Keno, or Washoe country, or the State of Nevada. The resources of the country are carefully studied and written up by able correspondents, and the Gazerra has done as much as all the other papers combined in this respect.

THE WEEKLY CAZETTE

contains all the reading matter of the Dally, without its advertisements. It is an eightpage paper, with good, plain letters and clean, white paper. It has increased in an extraordinary manner in the last six months, and is new growing rapidly. Its interesting matter, crisp editorials and late news make its popularity. By availing themselves of one club raises, the Werkelf Gazerre costs only half a doilar a year. It is given with the Builetin, Chronicle, Examiner or Record Union, which cost alone two dollars and fifty cents, for three doilars; with Harper's publications and the Argonust for four dellars and fifty cents, for three doilars; with Harper's publications and the Argonust for four dellars and fifty cents of year, and with other papers in proportion. Send for sample copies.

R. L. FULTON, Proprietor. VEGETABLES can be kept for an indean te period in their na ural condition, retain their odor and flavor, treated in their original backages, at a small expense. All Dead human bodies, treated before decomposition sets in, can be held in a natural condition for weeks, without puncturing the skin or mutilating the body in any way. Hence the great value of Ozone to undertakers. There is no change in the slightest particular in the appearance of any dricle thus preserved, and no trace of any foreign or unnatural odor or taste.
